Extensive summary

3 - June 2015
EDITORIAL

Until now, 2015 has been a year of remarkable events for Football stakeholders.

FIFA’s ban on TPO, the full implementation of the UEFA Financial Fair Play rules and of course FIFA’s new Regulations on Working with Intermediaries are certainly the most significant issues of the year.

Now the time has come to implement these new regulations, even if currently, they are all being legally challenged by unsatisfied stakeholders.

The rules of the game are changing... Welcome to a new era!

NILMAR’s affair: issues on the provisional measures and the validation exception within TMS rules

By Daniel CRAVO

"The evidences examined by the Player’s Satus Committee regarding NILMAR’s case were so particularly consistent that it led the Committee to adopt the provisionnal measure even before the player had obtained a formal decision stating the lack of just cause for the unilateral termination of the contract by the Qatari club." D. CRAVO

Employment contracts in German Football, with a specific focus on tools regulating their terms

By Joachim RAIN

"This shows that the decision of the MUELLER case, even if it was correct from a legal point of view – which in my opinion is not – must be set apart in order to keep more and serious damages away from football (...)." J. RAIN
The new Regulations on Working with Intermediaries

Madrid (Spain), 2 September 2013 - Gareth Bale shows his new Real Madrid shirt with president Florentino Perez. Real Madrid has acquired Gareth Bale for a record EUR 100 million transfer fee, making him the most expensive footballer ever on a single transfer.
